EXECUTRIX NOTICE

MRS. MARY BOYLE, Administratrix.

A MAN NOW

CAME INTO MY OFFICE TODAY AND MADE THE ABSOLUTE STATEMENT THAT IT WAS NEXT TO IMPOSSIBLE FOR HIM TO OWN HIS OWN HOME

I did not tell him so, but I have very little patience with a man that earns $3.25 per day, 9 hours for a day's work, which figuring on a basis of 300 work days in a year would give him an income of about $1,000 a year, and then hear him make the statement that he cannot own his property. I asked him why and he said that the places that he felt that he could afford to buy were not as good as the places that he had been living while he was paying rent, and that if he could not buy a place as good as he had been accustomed to live in he would continue to rent. I asked him what rent he was paying and he said $20 per month. The above is true with many people who will not sacrifice and curb their pride in order to get a start toward securing a home.

IN ELK TERRACE

I could sell that same man a lot on which he could build himself a home. The lot would cost him $250, or the house and lot, four rooms and bath, would cost him $1,250, and the terms would be in keeping with his income, and not amount to more than he was paying every month for a rented house.
